FINANCE DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 10217 F.—The 13th July 1922.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 2 read with rule 5 of the Fundamental Rules, Calcutta.

the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules regulating the grant of leave to Government servants of certain classes serving in the Survey Department, Bengal, and not being members of the office establishments located with the headquarters offices in Calcutta:—

1. These rules govern the grant of leave to Government servants of the following classes serving in the Survey Department, Bengal, and not being members of the office establishments located with the headquarters offices in Calcutta:—

- (a) Subordinates in superior service.
- (b) Menials attached to parties.

2. In addition to leave under Chapter X of the Fundamental Rules, departmental leave may be granted in the circumstances and on the conditions prescribed in rules 3 to 8.

3. (a) Departmental leave may not be granted except to a Government servant whose services are temporarily not required.

(b) It may be granted during the recess by the head of the party provided in the case of a menial that the officer granting the leave considers it desirable to re-employ the menial in the ensuing season.

(c) It may be granted at times other than the recess for not more than six months at a time by the Director of Surveys, Bengal, provided that the leave is granted in the interests of Government and not at the Government servant's own request; and leave so granted may, in special cases, be extended up to a maximum of one year in all. Leave on medical certificate should never be regarded as granted in the interests of Government.

4. Departmental leave may be granted on such leave salary, not exceeding half pay as the officer granting the leave may think fit. The leave salary is payable on return to duty after the expiration of leave and is not payable unless the Government servant returns to duty when required by his superior officer to do so. If, however, a Government servant dies while on departmental leave, his leave salary up to the date of his death will be paid to his heirs.

5. Departmental leave does not count as duty and will be debited to the leave account as though it were leave on half average pay.

6. Departmental leave may be granted when no leave is due. Departmental leave granted shall not be taken into account when calculating the maximum amount of leave admissible under Fundamental Rule 81(a).

7. Departmental leave may be combined with any other kind of leave which may be due.

8. When a Government servant subject to these rules holds a post in which the Director of Surveys, Bengal, considers that he is unlikely to be eligible for departmental leave in future, the Director of Surveys, Bengal, may by special order in writing declare that with effect from such date not being earlier than the Government servant's last return from departmental leave as the Director of Surveys, Bengal, may fix, any balance of leave at debit in the Government servant's leave account shall be cancelled. All leave earned after such date will be credited as due in the Government servant's leave account; and all leave taken after such date, including departmental leave, if any, will be debited in it.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 5979J.—The 3rd August 1922.—In exercise of the power conferred by section 544 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), read with section 21 of the General Clauses Act, 1897 (X of 1897), the Governor in Council has been pleased to make, with effect from the 16th August 1922 and in supersession of all previous rules on the subject, the following rules for regulating the payment on the part of Government of the expenses of complainants and witnesses in cases coming before the criminal courts.

II. The following notifications are hereby cancelled :—

Bengal Government notifications Nos. 3481J., dated the 25th June 1895 ; 510J., dated the 19th January 1904 ; 2149J., dated the 11th November 1907, and 1807J., dated the 5th June 1919.
Late Government of Eastern Bengal and Assam notifications Nos. 5528J., dated the 23rd December 1907, and 1791J., dated the 5th June 1917.

RULES.

1. The criminal courts are authorised to pay, at the rates by these rules, the expenses (a) of complainants or witnesses, whether for the prosecution or for the defence, (i) in cases in which the prosecution is instituted, or carried on by, or under the orders or with the sanction of Government, or of any Judge, Magistrate, or other public officer, or in which it shall appear to the presiding officer to be directly in furtherance of the interests of the public service, and (ii) in all cases entered in column 5 of Schedule II appended to the Code of Criminal Procedure as not bailable; and (b) of witnesses in all cases in which they are compelled by the Magistrate of his own motion to attend under the provisions of section 540 of the Code.

2. If a witness is summoned at the instance of the complainant or accused under section 244 of the Code his expenses shall not be withheld from him except on the ground of failure to do his duty as a witness when summoned.

3. (1) For the purpose of computing the expenses which the criminal courts are authorised to pay under these rules, complainants and witnesses shall be divided into two classes, namely :—

(a) labourers and ordinary cultivators and other persons of similar class, and

(b) persons of better position, and the allowance shall ordinarily be a diet allowance, which may be paid to persons coming under class (b) on demand by them, and to persons in class (a) as a general rule.

(2) Such allowance shall be calculated for each class at daily rates within, and never exceeding, the maximum limit specified below opposite the territorial description of the court in which the complainant or witness appears :—

	Class (a). per diem. As.	Class (b). per diem. Rs.
I.—Courts in the districts of Nadia, Murshidabad, Jessore, Khulna and Midnapore.	7	5
II.—Courts in the rest of the districts in the Presidency.	8	5

Explanation.—The rates fixed in this rule are maxima, and are intended to meet the cost of meals for one day. In every case, therefore, the court should consider the circumstances of the individual and local conditions, and grant a reduced allowance in circumstances and localities where the actual expenses fall short of the maximum rate. In cases where no meal is taken away from home, or where only one meal is taken, no allowance or a reduced allowance, as the case may be, should be granted.

4. (1) Complainants and witnesses performing the journey or part of the journey by rail, steamer or tram may be allowed their actual fares each way according to the class by which persons of their rank and station in life would ordinarily travel. In determining the class by which a person would ordinarily travel, regard should be had to the standard laid down in Section V of the Travelling Allowance Rules published in the Calcutta Gazette Extraordinary, December 23, 1921.

(2) Charges for toll at ferries will be allowed at the authorised rates to the extent to which they have actually been incurred.

(3) Other travelling expenses will be given only when the journey could not have been performed on foot, or in the case of persons whose age, position and habits of life render it impossible for them to walk.

In such cases, in addition to the allowances permitted by the preceding rules, travelling allowance shall be given at the following rates :—

(a) when the journey is by any kind of conveyance by road, the actual reasonable conveyance charge up to a maximum limit of 4 annas a mile ;

(b) in districts where the usual mode of travelling is by water, the actual expenses incurred for boat-hire up to a maximum of Rs. 2 a day.

(4) In hill districts, where it is customary for respectable persons to be accompanied by a man carrying their baggage, when such a person is summoned from a distance of more than five miles, he may be allowed the actual cost incurred for the hire of one coolie.

5. If the court is of opinion that any person following any trade or profession or engaged in any commercial undertaking has suffered substantial loss by reason of his attendance as a witness or complainant, he may be allowed, in addition to the diet money and travelling expenses permissible under the preceding rules, compensation according to circumstances.

6. Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, Government servants when summoned to give evidence in their public capacity shall receive no payment from the court on account of travelling or halting allowance, but shall be entitled to draw such allowance under the Civil Service Regulations on producing a certificate of attendance granted by the court. Any fees or expenses which may be deposited in the court for the travelling and subsistence allowance of Government servants summoned to give evidence in their official capacity shall be credited to Government under the head "XVI-A—Miscellaneous fees and fines":

Provided that—

(i) when a Government servant is required to give evidence in his public capacity at a court situated not more than five miles from his headquarters, the court shall be authorised, where it considers it necessary, and notwithstanding anything contained in this rule, to pay the actual travelling expenses incurred ;

(ii) when the salary of the Government servant so summoned does not exceed Rs. 10 per mensem, he shall be paid his expenses by the court.

7. Notwithstanding anything contained in rules 3 and 4 whenever the court requires the expenses of a Government officer, summoned as witness in his official capacity, to be deposited in advance, the term "expenses" shall be interpreted to mean the travelling and halting allowances admissible under the Civil Service Regulations.

8. Government servants, when summoned to give evidence in their private capacity, shall be paid by the court such travelling allowance as is paid to persons of similar status in the manner provided under rules 3 and 4 of these rules, but they shall not be entitled to any diet allowance, nor shall they receive any travelling allowance under the Civil Service Regulations.

9. Officers will be held responsible that parties of witnesses are brought to court together, as far as possible, so as to save expense. The hire of more than one boat shall not be allowed in one case, unless the presiding officer is satisfied that the witnesses could not have arranged to come together.

10. The number of days for which diet allowance should be granted shall be determined by the officer ordering payment in each case.

11. For this purpose and for regulating the re-imbursement of tolls paid, a table shall be prepared and kept in each court showing the distance of each thana from the sadar station and subordinate stations, the number of intermediate ferries to be crossed, and the authorised rates of charges for tolls at each of these ferries, the existence or absence of road or waterways being also noted in the table.

12. These rules shall apply also to witnesses summoned to give evidence in enquiries held by civil courts under Chapter XXXV of the Code of Criminal Procedure,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.
